

The

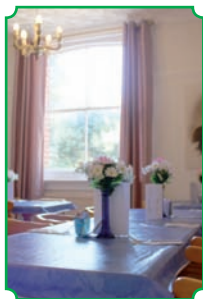

Quartermaster's Kitchen

Great food and drink in a lovely setting, available 10am-5pm every day...

Situated at the Royal Marines Museum,
Eastney Esplanade, Southsea, PO4 9PX

T: 023 9288 2411

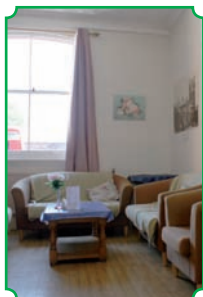

A family-run business based at an award-winning Museum, the fully licenced Quartermaster's Kitchen offers mouth-watering food and drink every day of the year, from 10am to 5pm.

FREE to visit at any time, visitors can enjoy anything from tea and cake through to a delicious hot meal made to order.

For those who haven't heard, breakfast at the Quartermaster's Kitchen is an experience not to be missed, and Sunday roasts have become something of a local legend - don't forget to book!

For those visiting as a group, the Quartermaster's Kitchen can easily cater to your every requirement; simply drop by, e-mail or telephone to explore the possibilities.

Enjoy the grand setting offered by the building (formerly the Officers' Mess of Eastney Barracks), the ambience of the Quartermaster's Kitchen, and maybe visit the Museum - the choice is yours!

The
Quartermaster's Kitchen

Eastney Esplanade, Southsea, PO4 9PX

T: 023 9288 2411 E: fruitloops@ntlworld.com

For details on the Museum, visit www.royalmarinesmuseum.co.uk